HOW IT WORKS

You earn Rio Rewards points almost everywhere, for whatever you do, and you can redeem them the same way they were earned. Your points can add up to FrioPlay, room credits, dining, entertainment—everything we offer.

*Only points earned from gaming may be redeemed for FrioPlay. However, all Rio Rewards points may be used for non-gaming resort credit.

THE MOST POINT VALUE IN VEGAS

As a Rio Rewards member, your stay and play create a rewards cycle, constantly earning you more and more.

FAQs

How do I move through the tiers?

You will move through the tiers by earning enough Rio Rewards points (from gaming or non-gaming spend) during the current calendar year.

How long will I maintain my new tier status?

For the remainder of the current year and for the entire following year.

Will my Rio Rewards points ever expire?

Only if your account has been inactive for 12 months.

Can I convert my Rio Rewards points into FrioPlay?

Points that have been earned from gaming can be converted into FrioPlay or used as Resort Credit. Points earned from non-gaming spend are used for Resort Credit.

Where and how can I use my Rio Rewards points?

You can “spend” your points at nearly every outlet while at the Rio. Just tell the cashier that you want to use your points to pay the bill.

I’m not a member, can I create a Rio Rewards account online?

Yes. If you don’t have a Rio Rewards number, scan the QR code below and click on “Not a member yet?” to join. Complete your enrollment and pick up your card by visiting Rio Rewards.

Can I look at my account online?

If you created your account while on property, please scan the QR code below and click on “create an online account” to gain access.

How do I get points for everything I do?

While gambling be sure to put your Rio Rewards card in the slot machine or give it to the dealer. You also want to associate your number with your room and always show your card to the cashier while dining or shopping. You can also take the paid receipt to Rio Rewards or email RioRewards@riolasvegas.com for processing.
